Registration Information

Fees and tuition

www.highline.edu/stuserv/registration/tuition.htm

The fees and tuition payment due date is listed in “Important Dates” on the first page or, if you register after this date, within one week. Continuing and new students who register early may defer payment. Contact Admissions/Entry Services.

For refund deadlines, see page 1.

Note: To accommodate students waiting to register, instructors may withdraw students who have not attended at least 60 percent of the class during the first five instructional days of the quarter. Students can contact the instructor to request an exception to the policy.

Building Fee: $2.50 per credit for one to 10 credits per quarter ($25 maximum), assessed at the time of registration. This additional fee was established by a vote of the students to cover costs of a new student center.

COMPASS Test: Free initial testing for students who pay the admissions application fee noted above. A $4.10 fee will be charged for retesting.

Instructional Technology Fee: $37.70 for students enrolled in computer-related courses.

Late Course Add Fee: $45 per course added with approval after the deadline listed in “Important Dates.” Instructor signature required.

Parking: Permits are required to park on the college's main campus. Students can purchase a parking permit at the Campus Security office or at the Cashier window. A parking permit does not guarantee a parking space.

Picture ID: Free for students who paid application fee. $10.60 for students enrolling in credit classes who have not paid application fee.

Transcript Fee: Official transcript copy costs $3.80. Allow five days to process each request. Free unofficial transcripts are available online at www.highline.edu.

Estimated tuition schedule

Tuition and fees are subject to change by the Washington State Legislature.

*Non-resident waiver applicable to U.S. citizens and/or those approved as permanent residents of the U.S. Amounts listed reflect a waiver of a portion of tuition charges. Contact Admissions/Entry Services for details. Students who do not meet the nonresident tuition waiver requirements may be subject to rates listed under international student tuition and fees.

Professional/Technical Education students enrolled in approved programs will not be charged in excess of 18 credits for coursework required to complete a degree or certificate.

For tuition purposes, a resident is a U.S. citizen, immigrant or refugee who has lived in Washington state for at least one year before the first day of the quarter for which you are enrolling. Visit www.highline.edu/stuserv/admissions/residency.htm.

Senior citizen rate (does not apply to Community Education classes): Washington residents 60 years or older may register for courses on the second week of the quarter on a space-available basis. A maximum of two classes per quarter may be taken. Instructor's signature is required. Credit course tuition is $8 per class. Non-credit course tuition is $5 per class. Special fees apply. This waiver is not available to students who plan to use the course credits for increasing credentials or salary increases; course credits taken under the waiver do not apply toward any certificate or degree.

WE THE JURY 2010
"We the Jury" is a 10-credit class in which students study justice, equality, and the U.S. legal system, including the three branches of government and current issues like the Patriot Act, terrorism, war powers and health care reform. Students develop skills in communication and apply them to legal settings and apply informative and persuasive speaking skills to legal presentations and arguments. Interpersonal and small group communication skills are applied to various legal communication settings and the impact of intercultural factors on conflict resolution is explored. Critical thinking skills are developed as students debate contemporary legal issues.

You may register via the Web for course registration. Waitlist is closed the day before the quarter begins. Students are responsible for checking to see if they have been added to a class. Repeating a class must be done automatically; students will not be registered, in the order their name appears on the list. Waitlist: When a course section is full, students may place themselves on a waitlist for that class. As positions become available, those on the list will automatically be registered, in the order their name appears on the list. Registration Blocks: Students may not repeat a class more than two times, with the exception of specially designed pre-college classes. After class completion, students must officially enroll for audit and attend at least 50 percent of scheduled sessions.

Credit Maximum: You may register for 18 credits per quarter through Web registration. Students who wish to enroll for 19 or more credits must see an adviser. “Add/Drop Request” form requires permission signature and submission to the Registration office.
